The Misses Marie and Emerald Jones, daughters of School Superintendent Jones, entertained the junior and freshmen classes of the high school last Friday evening at a lawn party. Their beautiful lawn at 212 South Eleventh street was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and a large platform was erected where dancing was enjoyed. The company assembled was a large one, and with the beautiful decorations a very pretty scene was presented. The success of the notable entertainment makes pertinent the query, why are there not more lawn parties in Lincoln? The recipients of the Misses Jones, charming hospitality were: Misses Lizzie Smith, Clara Smith, Nellie Newman, Stella Hoyet, Marie Harper, Lottie Anderson, Mabel Metcalf, Helen Howard, Bessie Turner, Lucie Phillips, Vinette McCandless, Bessie Winger, May Prentiss, Kate Kleutsch, Ethel Hooper, Henrietta Hawley, A. I. Shelton, Stella Elliott, O. A. Imhoff, Ella Raymond, Ardis Chapman, Edith Fiske, Virgil Barbour, Frances Wright, Dora Harby, Sadie Taylor, Grace Cook, Elma Senecrest, Ena Ricketts, Emma McWhinney, Ella Mathews, Della Mitchell, Della Carpenter, Miss Torp, George Camp, Grace Burr, Blanch Garten, Grace Hunston, Minnie Reetz, Della Conger, Miss Gillespie, Stella Pike, Helen Brown, Anna Sidele, Jennie Hugh, Bessie Munson and Messrs. Arthur Horner, Woodward Jones, Ed Mockett, Max Lansing, Sudley Cook, Mr. Smith, Fredrick K. Phillips, Frank Winger, Fred Cooley, Edgar Regan, George Kleutsch, Will Raymond, Fred Woodward, Park Garoutte, Lon Ricketts, Mr. Coffin, Frank Winger, Kelsey Yates, Frank Sanders, Frank Meyers, Fritz Kornmeyer, Urne Kedge, Arthur Bennett, Albert Hutton, Frank Bonebrake, Ernest Folson, Edgar Baughart, Arthur Hamer, Wynore Murray, Herbert Regan.

It is with great pleasure that THE COURIER chronicles the fact that on Tuesday afternoon, June 30, in Grace Presbyterian church, Evansville, Ind., Mr. Ham D. Cox, of the Evening Call, will wed Miss Laura Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. S. Thompson of that place. Mr. Cox is an exceedingly popular member of the newspaper fraternity, and his co-workers as well as his host of friends generally congratulate him upon the happiness in store for him. Knowing the prospective groom, his friends can also warmly congratulate the fortunate young lady on her choice of a life partner. She will be warmly welcomed on her arrival in Lincoln.

The funeral of Councilman J. B. Archibald took place last Sunday afternoon at his late residence, 3381 L street. The Rev. John Hewitt delivered an impressive discourse in the presence of members of the family and of the A. O. U. W. and other organizations of which the deceased was a member. The city council was also fully represented, including Mayor Weil and ex-Mayor Graham. The remains were placed on the eastbound train and were accompanied to Freeport, N. Y., by Mrs. Archibald and her two daughters, Bessie and Helen. Her brother, Mr. J. E. Thompson, also accompanied them.

There was a pleasant gathering last Saturday of about 140 scholars of the Everett school accompanied by their teachers Mrs. Jessie Styles, Miss Minnie Thompson and Miss Mary Burgess who hid themselves off to Lincoln Park for a picnic and a general good time. The day was spent in boat riding on the lake and other amusements customary on such occasions, and all went home happy and tired as people usually do after an extra amount of exertion put forth to have a good time. The parents of quite a number of the children were there and seemed to enjoy the holiday as well as the little folks.

Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get

OLD SAYINGS.

As poor as a church mouse, as thin as a rail,
As fat as a porpoise, as rough as a gale,
As brave as a lion, as sly as a cat,
As bright as a sixpence, as weak as a rat,
As proud as a peacock, as sly as a fox,
As mad as a March hare, as strong as an ox,
As fair as a lily, as empty as a jar,
As rich as Croesus, as cross as a bear,
As pure as an angel, as neat as a pin,
As smart as a steel trap, as ugly as a sin,
As dead as a door nail, as white as a sheet,
As mean as a miser, as full as a tick,
As round as an apple, as black as your hat,
As brown as a berry, as blind as a bat,
As merry as a miser, as full as a tick,
As plump as a partridge, as sharp as a stick,
As light as a feather, as hard as a rock,
As stiff as a poker, as calm as a clock,
As green as a gosling, as brisk as a bee,
And now let me stop, lest you weary of me.
